1 Industrial spaces for the modern kitchen

The industrial style continues to be a big hit in 2021, influenced by metalwork and urban environments this trend always looks great and so functional. Easy to mix with sophisticated stone or wood textures its perfect for dark and moody themes to create ambiance and elegance.

22mm PVC Edged Work Surfaces

Slim worktops are very popular in modern kitchen design so our 22mm worktops are a perfect choice. Also available as matching upstands and splashbacks.

2 Providence Blue the new timeless shade

With many darker blues rising in popularity in 2020, lighter blues set to feature more heavily in the kitchen for 2021. Providence Blue, a new soft blue-grey pastel shade that combines metallics and captures a timeless colour scheme that will work in a variety of homes and styles and offer a welcoming tone to every kitchen space.

Available in 2021.

3 Pebble soft, calming & versatile

Pebble, set to become even more popular for 2021, adds natural warmth whilst keeping a clean base to mix with other neutral tones. Accents of blacks and light wood finishes can be used well to complete a modern, timeless kitchen space.

Harvard Pebble will also be available in 2021.

We've seen a suite of trend-led colours and decors being introduced into our offer in 2020 and are swiftly adding to this with more progressive designs in the first half of 2021. From dark kitchen colours to stunning pink shades, coupled with Brass accents and natural work surfaces.

4 Indigo the blue revolution

For a long time, the interior design colour of the moment has been grey, but recently dark blue tones are taking over in the popularity stakes and Indigo Blue was created with this in mind. Available in Urban and Princeton as well as a paint to order colour across all of our painted ranges.

5 Dusky Pink going viral

This trendy hue is getting a lot of attention again thanks to its delightfully modern feel. It has become one of the most Instagrammable colours in homedecor, so there's no surprise we created a kitchen to celebrate the power of pink. Dusky Pink sits comfortably with black and brass tones to create a fresh new look and brighter kitchen space.

Dusky Pink is available across all of our paint to order kitchen ranges.

Go Green bring a little green indoors

Darker kitchen colours are increasing in popularity and to meet this growing trend, we have launched Bottle Green. Whether it's on cabinets or a paint shade adorning walls, green rules in the heart of our homes.

All shades of green are invigorating our living spaces and the new Bottle Green and Atlantic Green sits with our other recently launched paint colours, available across all of our paint to order kitchen ranges.

Also look out for our new Hunters Green coming in 2021.

6

Brass is the new gold

It is time to welcome brass accents back into our homes. Brass is a surprisingly warm and subtle alternative when paired with strong colours such as Bottle Green and Indigo. It adds an everyday sense of elegance to even the simplest of kitchens.

2020 has seen the launch of a number of Brass accents across our range such as the Brass Inline trim and a number of brass door handles.

Marble perfect for any style

Classic marble is one of the most popular choices for worktops right now. Just scroll through Pinterest and you'll see it trending in shot after shot showcased in every style of kitchen, from traditional to uber modern.

Arctic Marble and Marble Bianco are just two of the work surfaces that have been launched into the kitchen collection in 2020.

New additions for 2020

For cutting-edge design or country cottage styling, look no further than our collections. Choose from subtle or bolder designs that will appeal to anyone looking for a kitchen with character.
